Adding an email signature field to Salesforce email templates

Most companies send out marketing emails to their contacts and leads. By adding an "email signature additional info" field you can put additional information you would like displayed in your signature and add it to your email templates quickly and easily. This field will allow you to dynamically merge by user and improve the quality of your email templates!

For more information on this & other great way to personalize your Salesforce page, reach out to us at www.highfillservices.com/contact.html